Hands-on. Mechanically minded. Keen to build a career in lifts?

Going Up is an Australian-owned independent elevator company operating across the east coast of Australia. We install, service, and modernise lift systems and are growing our Installation team.

We’re looking for reliable, trade-experienced or mechanically minded Trade Assistants who are confident with tools and ready to work on active construction sites.

Office based in Brookvale. Project sites located across Sydney.

Lift experience is highly regarded — but not essential.

Your Role

- Assist with the installation and fit-out of lift systems
- Work alongside qualified installers and supervisors

Your Role

- Work alongside qualified installers and supervisors
- Handle tools, materials, and equipment safely
- Maintain clean and organised worksites
- Follow safety procedures and site requirements
- This is a full-time, permanent position with work across Sydney.

About You

- Experience using hand and power tools
- Background in electrical, mechanical, construction, automotive, or similar trades highly regarded
- Physically fit and comfortable working on construction sites
- Reliable, safety-conscious, and willing to learn
- Strong work ethic and team-focused attitude

What We Offer
